

PREVENTION OF MONEY LAUNDERING ACT, NO. 5 OF 2006

[Certified on 6th March, 2006]

AN ACT TO PROHIBIT MONEY LAUNDERING IN SRI LANKA ; TO PROVIDE THE NECESSARY MEASURES TO COMBAT AND PREVENT MONEY LAUNDERING ; AND TO PROVIDE FOR MATTERS CONNECTED THEREWITH OR INCIDENTAL THERETO.

1. This Act may be cited as the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, No. 5 of 2006.
2. The provisions of the Act shall apply in relation to—
  - (a) a person who commits an offence under the provisions of this Act whilst being resident in Sri Lanka;
  - (b) an Institution which is used for the commission of an offence under the provisions of this Act, which Institution is carrying on business in Sri Lanka and is either incorporated or registered in Sri Lanka or is either incorporated or registered as a branch of a bank incorporated or registered outside Sri Lanka;
  - (c) an Act which constitutes an offence under this Act, which is committed in Sri Lanka.

PART I

MONEY LAUNDERING

3. (1) Any person, who—
  - (a) engages directly or indirectly in any transaction in relation to any property which is derived or realised, directly or indirectly, from any unlawful activity or from the proceeds of any unlawful activity;
  - (b) receives, possesses, conceals, disposes of, or brings into Sri Lanka, transfers out of Sri Lanka, or invests in Sri Lanka, any property which is derived or realised, directly or indirectly, from any unlawful activity or from the proceeds of any unlawful activity, knowing or having reason to believe that such property is derived or realised, directly or indirectly from any unlawful activity or from the proceeds of any unlawful activity, shall be guilty of the offence of money laundering and shall on conviction after trial before the High Court be liable to a fine not less than the value of the property in respect of which the offence is committed and not more than three times the value of the property in respect of which the offence is committed or to rigorous imprisonment for a period of not less than five years and not exceeding twenty years, or to both such fine and imprisonment. The assets of any person found guilty of the offence of money laundering under this section shall be liable to forfeiture in terms of Part II, of this Act.

- (2) Any person who attempts or conspires to commit the offence of money laundering, or aids or abets, the commission of the offence of money laundering shall be guilty of an offence under this Act and shall be liable after trial before the High Court to be punished with the same punishment as is specified for the offence of money laundering.

In this subsection “abet” shall have the same meaning as in sections 100 and 101 of the Penal Code.

- (3) For the avoidance of doubts, it is hereby declared that a conviction for the commission by the accused of the unlawful activity shall not be necessary for the proof of the offence under the provisions of this Act.
4. For the purposes of any proceedings under this Act, it shall be deemed until the contrary is proved, that any movable or immovable property acquired by a person has been derived or realized directly or indirectly from any unlawful activity, or are the proceeds of any unlawful activity, if such property—
  - (a) being money, cannot be or could not have been—
    - (i) part of the known income or receipts of such person; or
    - (ii) money to which his known income or receipts has or had been converted; or

- (b) being property other than money, cannot be or could not have been—
  - (i) property acquired with any part of his known income or receipts; and
  - (ii) property which is or was part of his known income or receipts; and
  - (iii) property to which is any part of his known income or receipts has or had been converted.
- 5. (1) Any person who knows or has reason to believe from information or other matter obtained by him in the course of any trade, profession, business or employment carried on by such person, that any property has been derived or realised from any unlawful activity, shall disclose his knowledge or belief as soon as is practicable, to the Financial Intelligence Unit.
- (2) Any person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence under this Act, and shall on conviction after trial before the High Court be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.
- (3) The disclosure by a director or officer or servant of an Institution in terms of the provisions of the Financial Transactions Reporting Act, No. 6 of 2006 of his knowledge and belief that any property has been derived or realized from any unlawful activity, shall be sufficient compliance by such director, officer or servant, of the duty imposed on him by subsection (1).
- (4) The provisions of subsection (1) shall have effect notwithstanding any obligation as to secrecy or other restriction upon the disclosure of information, imposed by any written law or otherwise, and accordingly any disclosure by any person in compliance with the provisions of subsection (1) shall be deemed not to be a contravention of such obligation or restriction.
- (5) In a prosecution for an offence under subsection (2) it shall be a defence for the accused to prove to Court, on a balance of probabilities that he had reasonable grounds for not disclosing his knowledge or belief.
- 6. Any person who knows or has reason to believe that an investigation into the commission of the offence of money laundering has been, is being, or is about to be made, and who—
  - (a) divulges, other than in the performance of his duties under this Act, that fact or other information relating to such investigation to any Court or to any other person, knowing that the investigation is likely to be prejudiced thereby; or
  - (b) discloses, other than in the performance of his duties under this Act, the identity of the person against whom such investigation has been, is being, or is about to, be made;
  - (c) knowingly falsifies, conceals, destroys or otherwise disposes of, or causes or permits the falsification, concealment, destruction or disposal of, any document or material which is, or is likely to be, relevant to that investigation, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act, and shall on conviction after trial before the High Court, be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment,

PART II

FREEZING AND FORFEITURE OF ASSETS IN RELATION TO THE OFFENCE OF MONEY LAUNDERING

- 7. (1) A Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent of Police or in the absence of such an officer an Assistant Superintendent of Police may, where there are reasonable grounds to believe that any person is involved in any activity relating to the offence of money laundering and it is necessary for preventing further acts being committed in relation to such offence, issue an order (hereinafter referred to as a “Freezing Order”) prohibiting any transaction in relation to any account, property or investment which may have been used or which may be intended to be used in connection with such offence.
- (2) The Freezing Order obtained under subsection (1) shall be issued on—
  - (a) the person who is believed to be involved in the activity referred to subsection (1) ; and
  - (b) on any other person or institution who or which may be required to give effect to such Order.

- (3) Subject to the provisions of section 8, a Freezing Order made under subsection (1) shall be in force for a period of seven days of the making thereof.
  - (4) Any person who acts in contravention of a Freezing Order issued on him, shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction after trial before the High Court be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand rupees or one and a half times the value of the money in such account, property or investment which has been dealt with in contravention of the Freezing Order, whichever is higher or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and imprisonment.
8. (1) The Police Officer issuing the Freezing Order under the provisions of section 6 shall, within the seven days during which such Order shall be in force, make an application to the High Court seeking confirmation of such Freezing Order and also if the circumstances so necessitate, request an extension of the original period of seven days.
- (2) Where the High Court is satisfied that there are sufficient reasons for the making of such Freezing Order, the Court may confirm the Freezing Order and also grant the application made for the extension thereof for such periods as it considers necessary, subject however—
- (a) to any Orders which may be made under section 12; and
  - (b) to the requirement that the maximum period of any extension so granted shall not exceed one year from the date of the making of the Freezing Order by the Police Officer :
- Provided that where indictment is filed for the offence of money laundering in respect of the account, property or investment which is subject to the Freezing Order, such Freezing Order shall unless vacated by Court for reasons to be recorded, remain in force until the conclusion of the trial in respect of such offence, or where an appeal is preferred against a conviction for such offence, until the determination of the appeal.
- (3) Where the High Court confirms a Freezing Order under subsection (2) it shall cause to be published in at least one newspaper circulating in the Sinhala, Tamil and English languages, Notice of such Order, in order to facilitate bona fide third parties to make application to Court in support of their claims to the account, property or investment which is subject to the Order of freezing.
9. No transaction shall be effected in relation to such account, property or investment while the Freezing Order is in force and any transaction so effected shall be null and void.
10. In confirming a Freezing Order made under section 7, the High Court may on an application made in that behalf, if it is of opinion that such an Order could damage legitimate business or other interests of any person affected thereby, and that essential transactions relating to such account, property or investment as may have been prohibited by such Freezing Order may be legitimately carried out, make order permitting the carrying on of such transactions subject to supervision by and under the direction of a person appointed in that behalf by Court or of a receiver appointed in that behalf under section 11.
11. Upon an application made in that behalf by a police officer not below the rank of a Superintendent of Police or in the absence of such an officer an Assistant Superintendent of Police, the High Court may appoint a Receiver to take possession of and otherwise deal with the account, property or investment which has been subjected to the Freezing Order, in accordance with such directions as may be given by Court in that behalf.
12. (1) Any Police Officer not below the rank of a Superintendent of Police shall take possession of, and otherwise deal with, any account, property or investment, which is subject to a Freezing Order, and the Court may on application of the said Police Officer and for the purpose of determining in whom the ownership, possession or control of any property to which the Freezing Order relates, lies, Order:—
- (a) that any document relevant to—
    - (i) identifying, locating or quantifying that property;
    - (ii) establishing the ownership, possession or control of that property, be delivered forthwith to the Police Officer; and
  - (b) that a named institution furnish to the Receiver all information obtained by the institution about any business transaction conducted by or for that person with the institution during such period before or after the date of the Order as the Court may direct.

- (2) The Court making an Order under subsection (1) shall upon being satisfied that any person is failing to comply with, is delaying or is otherwise obstructing the execution of, an order made under subsection (1) make Order authorising the Police Officer to enter and search any premises of that person, and remove any document, material or other thing therein for the purpose of executing such Order.
  - (3) Upon determining in whom the ownership, possession or control of any property to which the Freezing Order relates, lies, the Police Officer shall report the same to the Court making the Freezing Order, along with all documents establishing and supporting such ownership, possession or control, as the case may be.
- 13. (1) Where a person is convicted of the offence of money laundering, the Court convicting such person shall, subject to the provision of subsections (2) make Order that any movable or immovable property of such person derived or realised, directly or indirectly from any unlawful activity, be forfeited to the State free from all encumbrances.
- (2) In determining whether an Order of forfeiture should be made under subsection (1), the Court shall be entitled to take into consideration the fact whether such an Order is likely to prejudice the rights of a bona fide purchaser for value or any other person who has acquired, for value, a bona fide interest in such property.
- (3) An Order made under subsection (1) shall take effect—
- (a) where an appeal has been preferred to the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court against the Order of forfeiture, upon the determination of such appeal confirming or upholding the Order of Forfeiture;
  - (b) where no appeal has been preferred to the Court of Appeal against the Order of Forfeiture within the period allowed therefor, after the expiration of the period within which an appeal may be preferred to the Court of Appeal, against such Order of Forfeiture.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Court making the Order of Forfeiture may presume that any movable or immovable property belonging to the person convicted of the offence of money laundering, is derived or realised, directly or indirectly from any unlawful activity if such property is not commensurate with the known sources of income of such person, and the holding of which cannot be explained on a balance of probabilities, to the satisfaction of the Court.
- 14. (1) Any person affected by an Order of Forfeiture made under section 13 of this Act, may make an application to Court making the Order of Forfeiture within a period of thirty days of the making of such Order stating that he has suffered loss as a result of the making of such Order.
- (2) Where an application is made under subsection (1) to the Court making the Order of Forfeiture, the Court may, upon being satisfied that the applicant has suffered loss as a result of its Order, order compensation to be paid to such person from the property forfeited.
- 15. Where any property has been forfeited to the State under section 13 of this Act, the Court making the order of Forfeiture may, appoint a Receiver to be in charge of the property so forfeited.
- 16. The provisions of this Part of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding any obligation as to secrecy or other restriction upon the disclosure of information imposed by any written law or otherwise and accordingly any disclosure of information by any person in compliance with the provisions of this Part of this Act shall be deemed not to be a contravention of such obligation or restriction.

PART III

GENERAL

- 17. An offence under this Act shall be a cognisable and non-bailable offence, within the meaning, and for the purpose, of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979.
- 18. Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body of persons, then, if that body of persons is—
- (a) a body corporate, every director, or other officer of that body corporate; and
  - (b) a firm, every partner of that firm; and

- (c) an unincorporated body other than a firm, every individual who is a member of such body and every officer of that body responsible for its management and control, shall be guilty of an offence:

Provided however, that no such person shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

19. (1) No suit or prosecution shall lie—

- (a) against the Financial Intelligence Unit or any person authorised to act on behalf of the Financial Intelligence Unit for any lawful act which in good faith is done or purported to be done by the Financial Intelligence Unit or such person under this Act;
  - (b) against an Institution or any director, officer, servant or agent of any such Institution, acting in the course of his employment or agency or any person referred to in subsection (1) of section 3, for any lawful act which in good faith is done or purported to be done by such Institution, director, officer, servant, agent or person in the performance of any duty imposed by this Act, or on the directions of the Authority.
- (2) No proceedings, civil or criminal, shall be instituted in any Court or tribunal against the Financial Intelligence Unit or any person authorised to act on behalf of the Authority in respect of any report, made in good faith, by the said Financial Intelligence Unit or such person under this Act.
- (3) Any expenses incurred by the Financial Intelligence Unit in any suit or prosecution brought by, or against, the said Financial Intelligence Unit or any person authorized to act on behalf of the said Financial Intelligence Unit, before any Court or tribunal in respect of any lawful act done or purported to be done by the said Financial Intelligence Unit or a person authorised to act on behalf of the said Financial Intelligence Unit, under this Act, and any costs paid to, or recovered by, the said Financial Intelligence Unit or such person in any such suit or prosecution shall be paid out of, or credited to, as the case may be, the account of the said Financial Intelligence Unit.
- (4) Any expenses incurred by an Institution or officer, servant, agent or person referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) in any suit, prosecution, brought by or against such Institution or such officer, servant, agent or person before any court or tribunal in respect of any act which is done or purported to be done by such Institution or such officer, servant, agent or person under this Act, or on the direction of the Financial Intelligence Unit, shall, if the Court or tribunal holds that the act was done in good faith, be paid by the said Financial Intelligence Unit, unless such expense is recovered by such Institution or officer, servant, agent or person, in such suit or prosecution.

20. (1) No person shall falsify, conceal, unlawfully destroy or otherwise dispose of, or cause or permit the falsification, concealment, unlawful destruction or disposal of any document, material or thing which is, or is likely to be relevant to the exercise, performance or discharge of any power, duty or function under this Act.

- (2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence under this Act and shall on conviction after trial before the High Court be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and imprisonment.

21. (1) No person shall —

- (a) falsify, conceal, destroy or otherwise dispose of, or cause or permit the falsification concealment, destruction or disposal of, any document or material or thing which is or is likely to be relevant to the execution of any Order made in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
  - (b) divulge, the fact that an investigation into an offence of money laundering or an offence under the law of any foreign State corresponding to the offence of money laundering, is being, or is about to be made, or divulge any other information to another person whereby such investigation is likely to be prejudiced.
- (2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence under this Act and shall on conviction after trial before the High Court be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and imprisonment.

22. Where the Minister in consultation with the Minister of Finance considers it appropriate, either because an international arrangement so requires or permits, or in the interests of comity, he may order that the whole or any part of any property forfeited under the provisions of this Part of this Act, or the value thereof, be given or remitted to the requesting State.
23. Where any officer or servant of an Institution discloses as hereinbefore provided his knowledge or belief that any property is derived or realized by means of any illegal activity, any subsequent dealing by such Institution, officer or servant with the owner of such property, shall be deemed not to constitute the aiding or abetment by such Institution, officer or servant, of an offence under this Act.

PART IV

PROVISIONS RELATING TO EXTRADITION AND MUTUAL ASSISTANCE IN RELATION TO THE OFFENCE OF MONEY LAUNDERING

24. The Schedule to the Extradition Law, No. 8 of 1977 is hereby amended by the insertion immediately before Part B thereof, of the following:—
“(47) An offence of Money Laundering within the meaning of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, No. 5 of 2006.”.
25. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Extradition Law, No. 8 of 1977 an offence in terms of this Act shall for the purpose only of extradition under that Law, be deemed not to be a fiscal offence, or an offence of a political character, or an offence connected with a political offence or an offence inspired by political motives.
26. Where a request is made to the Government of Sri Lanka by or on behalf of the Government of another country for the extradition of any person accused or convicted of an offence, under this Act, the Minister shall, on behalf of the Government of Sri Lanka forthwith notify the Government of the requesting State of the measures that Government of Sri Lanka has taken, or proposes to take, for the prosecution or extradition of that person for that offence.
27. (1) The provisions of the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act, No. 25 of 2002 shall, wherever it is necessary for the investigation and prosecution of an offence under section 2 of this Act, be applicable in respect of the providing of assistance as between the Government of Sri Lanka and other States who are either Commonwealth countries specified by the Minister by Order under section 2 of the aforesaid Act or Non-Commonwealth countries with which the Government of Sri Lanka entered into an agreement in terms of the aforesaid Act.
(2) In the case of a country which is neither a Commonwealth country specified by the Minister by Order under section 2 of the aforesaid Act nor a No-Commonwealth country with which the Government of Sri Lanka has entered into an agreement in terms of the aforesaid Act, then it shall be the duty of the Government to afford all such assistance to, and may through the Minister request all such assistance from such country, as may be necessary for the investigation and prosecution of an offence under section 3 to the extent required for the discharge of its obligations under the United Nations Convention (including assistance relating to the taking of evidence and statements, the serving of process and the conduct of searches).
(3) The grant of assistance to such country may be made subject to such terms and conditions as the Minister thinks fit.
28. (1) Where a person who is not a citizen of Sri Lanka is arrested for an offence under this Act, such person shall be entitled to communicate without delay with the nearest appropriate representative of the State of which he is a national or if he is a stateless person, the nearest appropriate representative of the State where he usually resides.
(2) A request under section 26 shall be deemed not to be invalidated for the purposes of any legal proceedings by reason of any failure to comply with the provisions of section 27, provided the Financial Intelligence Unit is satisfied that there is sufficient compliance with those provisions to enable it to properly execute the request.
29. (1) Where a person is arrested for an offence of money laundering, the Minister to whom the administration of this Act is assigned shall request the Minister in charge of the subject of Foreign Affairs to inform the relevant authorities in any other State which has made a request under section 26 in respect of such person, of the measures which the Government of Sri Lanka has taken or proposes to take for the prosecution or extradition of that person.

- (2) Where a request is made to the Government of Sri Lanka, by or on behalf of the Government of any State for the extradition of any person accused or convicted of an offence corresponding to the offence of money laundering, the Minister in charge of the subject of Foreign Affairs shall, on behalf of the Government of Sri Lanka, forthwith inform the Government of the requesting State, of the measures which the Government of Sri Lanka has taken, or proposes to take, for the prosecution or extradition of that person.
  - (3) Where it is decided that no order should be made under the Extradition Law, No. 8 of 1977, for the extradition of any person accused or convicted of an offence corresponding to the offence of money laundering pursuant to a request for his extradition made under that Law, by the Government of any State, the case shall be submitted to the law enforcement authorities, so that prosecution for the offence under the law of Sri Lanka, or any other appropriate action may be considered.
- 30. (1) A request for assistance under section 27 shall:—
- (a) confirm either that an investigation or prosecution is being conducted into an offence under the law of the requesting State corresponding to an offence of money laundering or that a person has been convicted of such an offence;
  - (b) state the grounds on which any person is being investigated or prosecuted for such offence or give details of the conviction of such person;
  - (c) give particulars sufficient to identify any person referred to in the request;
  - (d) give particulars sufficient to identify an Institution or other person believed to have information, documents or material or thing relevant to the investigation or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a) ;
  - (e) request the Authority to whom the request is addressed to obtain from the Institution or other person referred to in paragraph (d) all or any of the information, documents or material or thing referred to in paragraph (d);
  - (f) specify the manner in which and the person to whom, any information, document, material or thing obtained pursuant to the request, is to be transmitted;
  - (g) state whether or not an order of freezing or order of Forfeiture required;
  - (h) contain such other information as may assist the execution of the request.
- (2) The Financial Intelligence Unit shall cause to be transmitted to the person referred to in paragraph (f) of subsection (1) of this section, any information, document, material or thing seized by, or delivered or produced to the Financial Intelligence Unit, pursuant to an Order made in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
- 31. Where there is an extradition arrangement in force between the Government of Sri Lanka and the Government of any other State, such arrangement shall be deemed, for the purposes of the Extradition Law, No. 8 of 1977, to include provision for extradition in respect of the offence of money laundering as defined in this Act, and of attempting or conspiring to commit, aiding and abetting the commission of, or conspiring to commit, such offence.
- 32. The Government shall afford such assistance (including the supply of any relevant evidence at its disposal) to the relevant authorities of any foreign State as may be necessary in connection with criminal proceedings instituted in the State against any person, in respect of an offence under the law of that State corresponding to the offence of money laundering.
- 33. (1) The Minister may make regulations under this Act for any matter authorized or required to be made under this Act, or for the purpose of carrying out or giving effect to the principles and provisions of this Act.
- (2) Every regulation made by the Minister shall be published in the Gazette and shall come into operation on the date of such publication or on such later date as may be specified in the regulation.
- (3) Every regulation made by the Minister shall as soon as convenient after its publication in the Gazette be brought before Parliament for its approval. Any regulation which is not so approved shall be deemed to be rescinded as from the date of disapproval but without prejudice to anything previously done thereunder.
- (4) Notification of the date on which a regulation is deemed to be rescinded shall be published in the Gazette.
- 34. In the event of any inconsistency between the Sinhala and Tamil texts of this Act, the Sinhala text shall prevail.

1. This Act may be cited as the Financial Transactions Reporting Act, No. 6 of 2006.

PART I

DUTIES OF INSTITUTIONS

2. (1) No Institution shall open, operate or maintain an account, where the holder of such account cannot be identified, including any anonymous account or any account identified by number only, or any account which to the knowledge of the Institution is being operated in a fictitious or false name.
- (2) An Institution shall, subject to any rules issued by the Financial Intelligence Unit under subsection (3), identify each customer and verify their customer identification data or information relating to a customer as is reasonably capable of identifying a customer on the basis of any official document or other reliable and independent source document verifying the identity of the customer, in cases where the Institution—
  - (a) enters into a continuing business relationship, or in the absence of such a relationship, conducts any transaction, with any customer ;
  - (b) detects the carrying out of an electronic funds transfer by a customer, other than any prescribed transactions ;
  - (c) entertains a suspicion relating to the commission of an unlawful activity ; or
  - (d) entertains doubts about the veracity or adequacy of the customer identification and verification documentation or information it had previously obtained.
- (3) The Financial Intelligence Unit may issue rules prescribing—
  - (a) the official or identifying document or documents, or the reliable and independent source documents, data or information or other evidence that is required for identification or verification of any particular customer or class of customers ;
  - (b) the timing of the identification and verification requirements under this section ; and
  - (c) the threshold for, or the circumstances in which, the provisions of this section shall apply to transactions carried on by the customers of an Institution.

- (4) The terms and conditions imposed by rules issued under subsection (3) may vary in respect of different categories of Institutions, different categories of transactions or different categories of customers.
  - (5) The provisions of subsection (2) shall not apply—
    - (a) if the transaction is part of an existing and regular business relationship with a person who has already produced satisfactory evidence of identify unless the Institution has reason to suspect that the transaction is suspicious or unusual ;
    - (b) if the transaction is an occasional transaction not exceeding a prescribed sum unless the Institution has reason to suspect that the transaction is suspicious or unusual ;
    - (c) if any person has been a customer of the Institution prior to the enactment of this Act, subject to a phase-in period which shall not exceed three years : Provided that by the end of such period each Institution shall apply the provisions of subsection (2) hereof to such persons subject to such regulations as may be prescribed in that behalf ; and
    - (d) in such other circumstances as may be prescribed by regulations made in that behalf.
  - (6) For the purpose of subsection (5), “occasional transactions” means any transaction, in relation to cash and electronic fund transfer, that is conducted by any person other than through an account in respect of which the person is the customer.
3. If satisfactory evidence of identity is not submitted to an Institution as required in terms of the provisions of section 2, the Institution shall not proceed any further with the transaction unless directed to do so by the Financial Intelligence Unit established in terms of this Act, and shall report the attempted transaction to the Financial Intelligence Unit as a suspicious transaction under section 7.
4. (1) Every Institution shall be required to maintain —
- (a) records of transactions and of correspondence relating to transactions and records of all reports furnished to the Financial Intelligence Unit for a period of six years from the date of the transaction, correspondence or the furnishing of the report, as the case may be ; and
  - (b) records of identity obtained in terms of section 2 for a period of six years from the date of closure of the account or cessation of the business relationship, as the case may be,
- unless directions have been issued by the Financial Intelligence Unit that such records or correspondence should be retained for a longer period, in which case the records or correspondence should be retained for such longer period.
- (2) Records required to be maintained under subsection (1) shall contain particulars sufficient to identify the—
- (a) name, address and occupation (or where appropriate business or principal activity) of each person —
    - (i) conducting the transaction ; and
    - (ii) where applicable, on whose behalf the transaction is being conducted ;
  - (b) nature and date of the transaction ;
  - (c) type and amount of currency involved ;
  - (d) parties to the transaction ;
  - (e) the name and address of the employee who prepares the record ; and
  - (f) such other information as may be specified in rules issued by the Financial Intelligence Unit.
- (3) Where any record is required to be maintained under this Act—
- (a) it shall be maintained in a manner and form that will enable an Institution to comply immediately with requests for information from the Financial Intelligence Unit or a law enforcement agency ; and
  - (b) a copy of it may be kept—
    - (i) in a machine-readable form if a paper copy can be readily produced from it ; or

- (ii) in an electronic form, if a paper copy can be readily produced from it and an electronic signature of the person who keeps the records is retained for purposes of verification.

- (4) The records maintained under subsection (1) shall be made available upon request to the Financial Intelligence Unit for purposes of ensuring compliance with this Act.

5. An Institution shall—

- (a) conduct ongoing due diligence on the business relationship with its customer ;
- (b) conduct ongoing scrutiny of any transaction undertaken throughout the course of the business relationship with a customer to ensure that any transaction that is being conducted is consistent with the Institution's knowledge of the customer, the customer's business and risk profile, including, where necessary, the source of funds, in order to ensure that its obligations under section 2 are satisfied and that the transactions conducted are consistent with the information that the Institution has of its customer and the profile of the customer's business.

6. An Institution shall report to the Financial Intelligence Unit—

- (a) any transaction of an amount in cash exceeding such sum as shall be prescribed by the Minister by Order published in the Gazette, or its equivalent in any foreign currency (unless the recipient and the sender is a bank licensed by the Central Bank) ; and
- (b) any electronic funds transfer at the request of a customer exceeding such sum as shall be prescribed by regulation, in such form, manner, and within such period as may be prescribed by rules issued by the Financial Intelligence Unit.

7. (1) Where an Institution—

- (a) has reasonable grounds to suspect that any transaction or attempted transaction may be related to the commission of any unlawful activity or any other criminal offence ; or
- (b) has information that it suspects may be relevant—
  - (i) to an act preparatory to an offence under the provisions of the Convention on the Suppression of Financing of Terrorism Act, No. 25 of 2005 ;
  - (ii) to an investigation or prosecution of a person or persons for an act constituting an unlawful activity, or may otherwise be of assistance in the enforcement of the Money Laundering Act, No. 5 of 2006 and the Convention on the Suppression of Terrorist Financing Act, No. 25 of 2005, the Institution shall, as soon as practicable, after forming that suspicion or receiving the information, but no later than two working days therefrom, report the transaction or attempted transaction or the information to the Financial Intelligence Unit.

(2) A report under subsection (1) shall—

- (a) be in writing and may be given by way of mail, telephone to be followed up in writing within twenty-four hours, fax or electronic mail or such other manner as may be determined by the Financial Intelligence Unit ;
- (b) be in such form and contain such details as may be prescribed by the Financial Intelligence Unit ;
- (c) contain a statement of the grounds on which the Institution holds the suspicion ;
- (d) be signed or otherwise authenticated by the Institution.

- (3) A person who has made a report or has given any information to the Financial Intelligence Unit shall provide to the Financial Intelligence Unit any further information that it has about the transaction or attempted transaction or the parties to the transaction if requested to do so by the Financial Intelligence Unit.

8. Every Institution shall, in relation to any person conducting transactions with such institution, forthwith disclose to the Financial Intelligence Unit—

- (a) the existence of any property in its possession or control, which to its knowledge is, or which it reasonably suspects is, property derived from the commission of any terrorist activity in terms of any law for the time being in force ;

- (b) the existence of any property in his or her possession or control, owned or controlled by or on behalf of a specified entity or for which there are reasonable grounds for suspicion that it is owned or controlled by or on behalf of a specified entity ;
- (c) any information regarding a transaction or proposed transaction in respect of property derived from the commission of any terrorist activity in terms of any law for the time being in force ; or
- (d) any information regarding a transaction or proposed transaction and there are reasonable grounds for suspicion that such transaction may involve property derived from the commission of any terrorist activity in terms of any law for the time being in force.

PART II

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO INSTITUTIONS AND OTHER PERSONS

9. (1) A person shall not disclose to any other person—
- (a) that a report has been made or information provided to the Financial Intelligence Unit in terms of any provisions of this Act ;
  - (b) that any suspicion in relation to a transaction has been formed as referred to in section 7 ; or
  - (c) any other information from which the person to whom the information is disclosed could reasonably be expected to infer that a suspicion has been formed or that a report has been or may be made.
- (2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply to disclosures made to—
- (a) an officer or employee or agent of the person making the report under this Act for any purpose connected with the performance of that person's duties ;
  - (b) a lawyer, attorney or legal advisor for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to any matter ; or
  - (c) the supervisory authority of the relevant Institution, in so far as it is related to the discharge of the functions of the supervisory authority.
- (3) No person referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) to whom any disclosure of information has been made, shall disclose that information other than to a person referred to therein, in so far as it is necessary for—
- (a) the performance of the first-mentioned person's duties ; or
  - (b) obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the matter.
- (4) No person referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection 2 to whom the disclosure of any information has been made shall disclose that information except for the purpose referred to in that subsection, or for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or making representation in relation to the matter to the Financial Intelligence Unit.
10. (1) A person shall not disclose any information that will identify or is likely to identify —
- (a) the person who has handled a transaction in respect of which a suspicious transaction report under this Act has been made ;
  - (b) the person who has prepared such a suspicious transaction report ;
  - (c) the person who has reported such a suspicious transaction ; or
  - (d) the information contained in a suspicious transaction report or information provided pursuant to section 7, other than for the purpose of—
- (i) the investigation or prosecution of a person or persons for an unlawful activity, or an offence under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, No. 5 of 2006 or the Convention on the Suppression of Terrorist Financing Act, No. 25 of 2005, respectively ; or

- (ii) the enforcement or implementation of the provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, No. 5 of 2006 and the Convention on the Suppression of Terrorist Financing Act, No. 25 of 2005.
- (2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit the disclosure of any information for the purposes of the prosecution of any person for the violation of the provisions of section 7.
- 11. Subject to the provisions of this Act and any other written law for the time being in force prohibiting such disclosure, nothing contained in section 9 or 10 shall prevent the disclosure of any information in connection with, or in the course of, proceedings before a Court and no person shall be required to disclose any information to which this section applies in any judicial proceeding unless the judge or other presiding officer is satisfied that the disclosure of the information is necessary in the interests of justice.
- 12. (1) No civil, criminal or disciplinary proceedings shall lie against —
- (a) a such Institution, an auditor or supervisory authority of an Institution ; or
  - (b) a director, partner, an officer, employee or agent acting in the course of that person's employment or agency of an Institution, firm of Auditors or of a supervisory authority,
- in relation to any action by the Institution, the firm of auditors or the supervisory authority or a director, partner, officer, employee or agent of such Institution, firm or authority, carried out in terms of this Act in good faith or in compliance with regulations made under this Act or rules or directions given by the Financial Intelligence Unit in terms of this Act.
- (2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply in respect of any proceedings for an offence described in section 8 of this Act.
- (3) If an Institution, firm of auditors or supervisory authority or any director, partner, officer, employee or agent, of any Institution, firm or authority or makes a report under the provisions of this Act, such person shall for the purposes of a prosecution for the offence of money laundering, be deemed not to have been in possession of that information at any time.
- 13. (1) Nothing contained in sections 4, 5, 6, 7 or 8 of this Act shall be construed as requiring a lawyer to disclose any privileged communication only if —
- (2) (a) it is a confidential communication, whether oral or in writing, passing between —
- (i) a lawyer or legal advisor in his or her professional capacity and another barrister, solicitor, lawyer, attorney or legal advisor in such capacity ; or
  - (ii) a lawyer or legal advisor in his or her professional capacity and his or her client, whether made directly or indirectly through an agent of either ; and
- (b) it is made or brought into existence for the purpose of obtaining or giving legal advice or assistance ; and
- (c) it is not made or brought into existence for the purpose of committing or furthering the commission of some illegal or unlawful act.
- (3) Where the information consists wholly or partly of, or relates wholly or partly to receipts, payments, income, expenditure, or financial transactions of a person (whether a lawyer his or her client, or any other person), it shall not be a privileged communication if it is contained in, or comprises the whole or part of any book, account, statement or other record prepared or kept by the lawyer in connection with a trust account of the lawyer.
- 14. (1) Every Institution shall be required to—
- (a) appoint a Compliance Officer who shall be responsible for ensuring the Institution's compliance with the requirements of this Act ;
  - (b) establish and maintain procedures and systems to—
    - (i) implement the customer identification requirements under section 2 ;
    - (ii) implement procedures for the record keeping and retention requirements under section 4 ;

- (iii) implement the process of monitoring required under section 5 ;
  - (iv) implement the reporting requirements under sections 6, 7, 8 and section 22 in relation to auditors ;
  - (v) make its officers and employees aware of the laws relating to money laundering and financing of terrorism ; and
  - (vi) screen all persons before hiring them as employees ;
  - (c) establish an audit function to test its procedures and systems for the compliance with the provisions of this Act ;
  - (d) train its officers, employees and agents to recognize suspicious transaction.
- (2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply to an individual who, in the course of carrying on his her business, does not employ or act in association with any other person.
- (3) An Institution shall ensure that its foreign branches and subsidiaries adopt and observe measures consistent with Parts I, II and III of this Act to the extent that local laws and regulations permit and where the foreign branch or subsidiary is unable to adopt and observe such measures, to report the matter to the relevant supervisory authority or in the absence of a supervisory authority to the Financial Intelligence Unit.

PART III

POWERS AND FUNCTIONS OF THE FINANCIAL INTELLIGENCE UNIT

15. (1) The Financial Intelligence Unit—

- (a) shall receive reports made in terms of the provisions of this Act and information provided to the Financial Intelligence Unit by any agency of another country, information provided to the Financial Intelligence Unit by a law enforcement agency or a government institution or agency, and other information voluntarily provided to the Financial Intelligence Unit about suspicions of an act constituting an unlawful activity ;
- (b) shall collect or require the supervisory authority of a financial institution to collect any information that the Financial Intelligence Unit considers relevant to an act constituting an unlawful activity, or an offence of money laundering or financing of terrorism, or a terrorist activity whether or not publicly available, including commercially available databases, or information that is collected or maintained, including information that is stored, in databases maintained by the Government ;
- (c) may request information from any Government agency, law enforcement agency and supervisory agency for the purposes of this Act ;
- (d) may analyze and assess all reports and information ;
- (e) shall carry out examinations of all Institutions as set out in section 18 ;
- (f) shall refer any matter or any information derived from any report or information it receives to the appropriate law enforcement agency if, on the basis of its analysis and assessment, the Financial Intelligence Unit has reasonable grounds to suspect that the transaction would be relevant to the investigation or prosecution under this Act or of an act constituting an unlawful activity, and in connection therewith, the Financial Intelligence Unit may send a copy of such referral or information to the relevant supervisory authority ;
- (g) shall destroy a suspicious transaction report on the expiry of six years from the date of receipt or collection of the report, if there has been no further activity or information relating to the report, or the person named in the report, or six years from the date of the last activity relating to the person or report ;
- (h) shall instruct or require the supervisory authority of an Institution to take such steps as may be appropriate in relation to any information or report received by the Financial Intelligence Unit, to enforce compliance with this Act or to facilitate any investigation anticipated by the Financial Intelligence Unit or a law enforcement agency ;

- (i) shall compile statistics and records, and may disseminate information within Sri Lanka or elsewhere, and make recommendations arising out of any information received ;
  - (j) shall issue or have the supervisory authority of an Institution issue, rules and guidelines to Institutions in relation to customer identification, record keeping, reporting obligations, the identification of suspicious transactions and such other matters in respect of which the Financial Intelligence Unit has been vested with the power to issue rules or guidelines by this Act ;
  - (k) shall periodically report to all Institutions and other relevant agencies regarding the outcome from reports or information given under the Act ;
  - (l) may obtain further information on parties or transactions referred to in a report made to it under this Act ;
  - (m) may conduct training programs for Institutions in relation to customer identification, record keeping and reporting obligations and the identification of suspicious transactions ;
  - (n) may undertake due diligence checks and other inquiries as may be necessary for performance of its duties and functions under this Act ;
  - (o) may conduct research into trends and developments in the area of money laundering and the financing of terrorism and improved ways of detecting, preventing and deterring money laundering and the financing of terrorism ;
  - (p) may educate the public and create awareness on matters relating to money laundering and the financing of terrorism ;
  - (q) may disclose as set out in section 16 and 17, any report, any information derived from such report or any other information it receives, to an institution or agency of a foreign state or of an international organization established by the governments of foreign states that has powers and duties similar to those of the Financial Intelligence Unit, if on the basis of its analysis or assessment the Financial Intelligence Unit has reasonable grounds to suspect that the information would be relevant to the investigation or prosecution of any act constituting an unlawful activity, a money laundering offence or a offence of financing of terrorism ; and
  - (r) may enter into any agreement or arrangement with any domestic government institution or agency regarding the exchange of information.
- (2) Where the Financial Intelligence Unit has reasonable grounds to suspect that a transaction or attempted transaction may —
- (a) involve the proceeds which are attributable to any unlawful activity ; or
  - (b) be connected to the commission of the money laundering offence under the Money Laundering Act, No. 5 of 2006 ; or
  - (c) be preparatory to the commission of an offence under the Convention on the Suppression of Terrorist Financing Act, No. 25 of 2005,
- it may direct the Institution in writing or by telephone to be confirmed in writing within twenty-four hours, not to proceed with the carrying out of that transaction or attempted transaction or any other transaction in respect of the funds affected by that transaction or attempted transaction for a period to be determined by the Financial Intelligence Unit, which may not be more than seven days, in order to allow the Financial Intelligence Unit —
- (i) to make any necessary inquiries concerning the transaction or attempted transaction ; and
  - (ii) if the Financial Intelligence Unit deems it appropriate, to consult or advise the relevant law enforcement agency in the inquiries.
- (3) The Financial Intelligence Unit may make an ex -parte application to the High Court of the Western Province, holden in Colombo, for an extension of the period of time stipulated in subsection (2) setting out the grounds for such application.

16. The Financial Intelligence Unit may disclose any report or information to an institution or agency of a foreign state or of an international organization or body or other institution or agency established by the Government of a foreign State that has powers and duties similar to those of the Financial Intelligence Unit on such terms and conditions as are set out in the agreement or arrangement between Financial Intelligence Unit and an institution, agency or organization or authority regarding the exchange of such information under section 17.

17. (1) The Financial Intelligence Unit may, with the approval of the Minister, enter into an agreement or arrangement, in writing, with—
- (a) an institution or agency of a foreign State or foreign States or an international organization established by the Governments of a foreign State that has powers and duties similar to those of the Financial Intelligence Unit ; and
  - (b) a foreign law enforcement agency or a foreign supervisory authority,
- regarding the exchange of information between the Financial Intelligence Unit and the institution, authority or agency.
- (2) The information exchanged under subsection (1) shall be information that the Financial Intelligence Unit, the Institution or agency has reasonable grounds to suspect would be relevant to the investigation or prosecution of an offence constituting an unlawful activity or an offence that is substantially similar to such an offence.
- (3) Agreements or arrangements entered into under subsection (1) shall include the following :—
- (a) restrictions on the use of information to purposes relevant to investigating or prosecuting any act constituting an unlawful activity or an offence that is substantially similar to such offence ;and
  - (b) the stipulation that the information be treated in a confidential manner and not be further disclosed without the express consent of the Financial Intelligence Unit.
18. (1) Subject to the requirements of paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of section 15, the Financial Intelligence Unit or any person authorised by it in that behalf may examine the records and inquire into the business and affairs of an Institution for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the Act or any directions, orders, rules or regulations issued under the Act, and for that purpose may—
- (a) at any reasonable time, enter any premises, in which the Financial Intelligence Unit or authorised person believes, on reasonable grounds, that there are records relevant to ensuring compliance with the provisions of Parts I, II and III of this Act ;
  - (b) use or cause to be used any computer system or data processing system found in the premises, to examine any data contained in or available to the system ;
  - (c) reproduce any record, or cause it to be reproduced from the data, in the form of a printout or other intelligible output and remove the printout or the output for examination or copying ; and
  - (d) use or cause to be used any copying equipment in the premises to make copies of any record.
- (2) The owner or person responsible for the premises referred to in subsection (1) and every person found thereon shall give the Financial Intelligence Unit or any authorized person all reasonable assistance to enable them to carry out their responsibilities and shall furnish them with any information that they may reasonably require with respect to the administration of Parts, I, II and III of this Act or the regulations made under the Act.
- (3) The Financial Intelligence Unit may transmit any information from, or derived from, such examination to the appropriate domestic or foreign law enforcement authorities or supervisory authorities, if the Financial Intelligence Unit has reasonable grounds to suspect that the information is suspicious or is relevant to an investigation for non-compliance with this Act, or amounts to an offence constituting an unlawful activity.
19. (1) A person required to conform to the requirements prescribed by or under Parts I and II of this Act, who fails to so conform, shall be liable to a penalty as may be prescribed taking into consideration the nature and gravity of relevant non-compliance : Provided however such penalty shall not exceed a sum of rupees one million in any given case. Where a person who has been subjected to a penalty on a previous occasion, subsequently fails to conform to a requirement on any further occasion such person shall be liable to the payment of an additional penalty in a sum consisting of double the amount imposed as a penalty on the first occasion and for each non-compliance after such first occasion.
- (2) The Financial Intelligence Unit shall be responsible for the collection of a penalty imposed by this section and the money so collected shall be credited to the Consolidated Fund.
- (3) If a person who becomes liable to a penalty in terms of subsection (1) fails to pay such penalty, the Unit may make an ex- parte application to the High Court of the Western Province holden in Colombo for an Order requiring the payment of the penalty and upon such order being made such amount shall be recoverable in the same manner as a fine imposed by Court.

- (4) The imposition of a penalty under this section shall not preclude a supervisory authority or a regulatory or self regulatory authority of an Institution from taking any regulatory or disciplinary measures including, but not limited to, the suspension of such Institution from the carrying on of a business or profession or the cancellation of a licence or authority granted for the carrying on of a business or profession, as may be permitted in terms of any applicable written law or rules for the regulation or supervision of such Institution.
- (5) Where a penalty is imposed under this section on a body of persons, then-
- (a) if that body of person is a body corporate, every person who at the time of the imposition of the requirements under subsection (1) was a Director, General Manager, Secretary or other similar officer of that body ; or
  - (b) if that body is not a body corporate, every person who at the time of the imposition of such requirements was the President, Manager, Secretary, partner or other similar officer of that body,
- shall be liable to pay such penalty, unless he proves that he had no knowledge of the failure to comply with the requirement or that he exercised all due diligence to ensure compliance therewith.
- (6) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (1), the Financial Intelligence Unit may issue a directive to any Financial Institution that has without reasonable cause failed to comply in whole or in part with any obligations in Parts I, II or III of this Act requiring such Institution to implement a action plan specified in such directive to ensure compliance with its obligations under the said Parts.
- (7) Where an Institution fails to comply with a directive issued under subsection (6), the Financial Intelligence Unit may, upon application to the High Court of the Western Province, holden in Colombo and upon satisfying the Court that an Institution has failed without reasonable excuse to comply in whole or in part with the directive issued by it under subsection (6), obtain an order against the Institution and any or all of the officers or employees of that Institution in such terms as the Court deems necessary to enforce compliance with such obligation.
- 20. (1) The provisions of this section shall be applicable in relation to any person who is, or who has been, a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Financial Intelligence Unit.
- (2) Except for the purpose of the performance of his or her duties or the exercise of his or her functions under this Act, or when lawfully required to do so by any court, the person referred to in subsection (1) shall not disclose any information or matter which has been obtained by him or her in the performance of his or her duties or the exercise of his or her functions under this Act or which he or she has knowledge except for one or more of the following purposes :—
- (a) for securing compliance with, or detecting evasion of, any requirement contained in any provision of this Act or any other written law relating thereto ;
  - (b) the implementation of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, No. 5 of 2006 and the Convention on the Suppression of Terrorist Financing Act, No. 25 of 2005 ; or
  - (c) the purposes of section 50A of the Exchange Control Act (Chapter 423).
- 21. Any employee of the Financial Intelligence Unit or any authorised officer, agent or person appointed by the Financial Intelligence Unit for the performance of its statutory functions shall not be liable for damages for any lawful act or omission which has occurred in the discharge or purported discharge of any of its statutory functions under this Act unless it is shown that the act or omission was done in bad faith.

FUNCTIONS OF SUPERVISORY AUTHORITY OF AN INSTITUTION AND AUDITORS

- 22. (1) Where a supervisory authority or an auditor of an Institution has reasonable grounds to suspect that information that it has concerning any transaction or attempted transaction may, be —
- (a) relevant to an investigation or prosecution of a person or persons for any unlawful activity ;
  - (b) of assistance in the enforcement of the provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, No. 5 of 2006 and the Convention on the Suppression of Terrorist Financing Act, No. 25 of 2005 ;

(c) related to the commission of any offence constituting an unlawful act ; or

(d) preparatory to the offence of the financing of terrorism, the supervisory authority or the auditor of the Institution shall report the transaction or attempted transaction to the Financial Intelligence Unit.

(2) The supervisory authority shall at the request of the Financial Intelligence Unit carry out any examination into any transaction or other matter relating to the Institution and report on such examination to the Financial Intelligence Unit.

(3) The Financial Intelligence Unit shall consult the supervisory authority in respect of the issue of guidelines, directions or regulations to an Institution which is regulated by such supervisory authority and shall furnish to the supervisory authority copies of all guidelines, regulation or directions issued to such Institution.

23. The relevant supervisory authority of an Institution shall—

(a) verify through regular examinations whether that an Institution is complying with provisions of the Act and shall report any non-compliance to the Financial Intelligence Unit ;

(b) co-operate with law enforcement agencies and the Financial Intelligence Unit in any investigation, prosecution or proceedings relating to any offence constituting an unlawful activity.

PART V

CURRENCY REPORTING AT THE BORDER

24. (1) Where a person —

(a) is about to leave Sri Lanka or has arrived in Sri Lanka ; or

(b) is about to board or leave, or has boarded or left, any ship or aircraft , an authorised officer may, with such assistance as is reasonable and necessary, and with use of force as is necessary,

(i) examine any article which a person has with him or her or in his or her luggage ; and

(ii) if the officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that an offence under section 27 of this Act may have been or is being committed, search the person ; for the purpose of determining whether the person has in his or her possession, any cash or negotiable bearer instruments in respect of which a report under subsection 5 is required.

(2) A person shall not be searched except by a person of the same sex.

(3) An authorised officer, and any person assisting such officer may stop, board and search any ship, aircraft or conveyance for the purposes of exercising the powers conferred by subsections (1) or (2) of this section.

(4) Where an authorised officer has reasonable grounds to believe that cash or negotiable bearer instruments found in the course of an examination or search, conducted under subsections (1) or (2) above, may afford evidence as to the commission of an unlawful activity, the officer may seize the cash or negotiable bearer instruments, within twenty-four hours of such seizure.

(5) An authorised officer who has seized cash and negotiable bearer instrument under subsection (4) shall report such seizure to the Unit.

25. An authorised officer may seize and, in accordance with the provisions of this part detain, any cash or negotiable bearer instruments which is being imported into, or exported from Sri Lanka in any form or manner if he or she has reasonable grounds for suspecting that it is —

(a) derived from the commission of any unlawful activity ; or

(b) intended by any person for use in the commission of an unlawful activity ;

(c) intended to be used for or in connection with an offence connected with the financing of terrorism in term of the Convention on the Suppression of Terrorist Financing Act, No. 25 of 2005.

- 26. (1) Cash and negotiable bearer instruments seized under subsection (4) of section 24 or section 25 shall not be detained for more than five working days after seizure, unless the High Court for the Western Province holden in Colombo, on application made to it, grants an Order of continued detention for a period not exceeding three months from the date of seizure, upon being satisfied that —
- (a) there are reasonable grounds to suspect that it was derived from the commission of any unlawful activity or is intended by any person for use in the commission of an offence or in connection with an offence connected with the financing of terrorism under the Convention on the Suppression of Terrorist Financing Act, No. 25 of 2005 ; and
  - (b) its continued detention is justified while its origin or derivation is further investigated.
- (2) The Court may subsequently Order, after hearing, with notice to parties it determines are relevant, the continued detention of the cash and negotiable bearer instruments if satisfied of the matters mentioned in subsection (1) but the total period of detention shall not exceed two years from the date of the Order.

- (2) Every Order made by the Minister under paragraphs (a) and (b) above shall come into force from the date on which the Minister has affixed his signature on such Order.
3. Upon the required certification being made in respect of the persons referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 2 by the Superintendent of Public Debt of the Central Bank of Sri Lanka and the Commissioner – General of Inland Revenue as the case may be, it shall be the duty of the Director – General of Customs to collect the levy payable by such persons at the time of importation and remit the same to the Consolidated Fund.

4. The Secretary to the Treasury may from time to time issue such general or special directions as may be necessary for the implementation of the levy in terms of this Part of the Act.
5. Where a levy of such amount as is specified by Order under section 2 has been collected by the Director-General of Customs in terms of this Part of this Act during the period commencing on March 1, 2006, and ending on the date of commencement of this Act, from any person referred to in paragraphs (a) or (b) of section 2, who so imports a motor vehicle, such collection shall be deemed for all purposes to have been and to be, validly made, and the Director General of Customs is hereby indemnified against all action civil or criminal, in respect of such collection.

PART II

IMPOSITION OF A LEVY ON TELE-DRAMAS FILMS AND TELEVISION COMMERCIALS

6. (1) With a view to improving and regulating the quality and standard of tele dramas, films and commercials produced in Sri Lanka and thereby ensuring the propagation of Sri Lankan values through such tele dramas, films and commercials, there shall be charged and levied, from every institution licensed under the Sri Lanka Rupavahini Corporation Act, No. 6 of 1982, or such other licensing authority as may be identified from time to time, a Levy to be called the Teledrama, Film and Commercials Levy (hereafter in this Part referred to as “the Levy”), on every tele drama, film or commercial, made and or filmed outside Sri Lanka and bought into or imported into Sri Lanka for the purpose of being telecast, at such rate in relation to the duration of such tele drama, film or commercial, as shall be specified by the Minister in charge of the subject of Finance in consultation with the Minister to whom the subject of issuing of licences to television stations is assigned :

Provided however the above levy shall not be chargeable in respect of –

- (a) any documentary which is telecast in Sri Lanka, irrespective of whether such documentary was made outside Sri Lanka;
- (b) any film or tele-drama which, –
  - (i) seeks to impart educational values; or
  - (ii) is produced solely for the purposes of providing entertainment for children.
- (c) any other category of tele dramas, films or commercials which may be prescribed by regulations.
- (2) The manner and mode of payment, the time of payment and the procedure for the collection of the same and such other terms and condition which may be necessary in the implementation of the provisions of this Act shall be prescribed by regulations made in that behalf.
- (3) Every Order made under subsection (1) above shall come into force from the date on which the Minister has affixed his signature on such Order.
7. (1) Any person who defaults in the payment of the levy in the manner and within the period prescribed by regulations, shall be deemed to be a defaulter.
- (2) Every defaulter shall be liable to pay to the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister to whom the issuing of licenses to television stations is assigned, in addition to the amount of the levy in default a surcharge calculated in the following manner:-
  - (a) ten per centum of the amount of such levy as is in default for the subsequent period of one month or part thereof, calculated from the date on which the levy was payable; and
  - (b) two per centum of the amount of such levy as is in default for each subsequent period of one month or part thereof, calculated from the date on which the payment specified in paragraph (a) was due.
- (3) The Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister to whom the issuing of licenses to television stations is assigned, shall take action to recover the levy or such part of the levy which is in default for a period of more than three months and the amount of the surcharge accrued thereon, in the manner as is specified hereafter.

- (4) The Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister to whom the issuing of licenses to television stations is assigned, shall cause to be issued on the defaulter, three weeks prior to the taking of any steps for the recovery of the levy in default along with the amount of the surcharge accrued thereon, a Notice informing the defaulter of the intention to institute proceedings for the recovery of the amount of the levy in default and the amount of the surcharge accrued thereon in terms of the provisions of this section.
  - (5) Where the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister to whom the issuing of licenses to television stations is assigned, issues Notice on the defaulter in terms of subsection (4) but the amount of the levy in default and the amount of the surcharge accrued thereon remains unpaid even though the period of three weeks specified in such Notice has elapsed, the Secretary shall issue to the Magistrate having jurisdiction over the division in which the defaulter resides or is carrying on business, a Certificate containing the name and address of the defaulter and the total sum in default along with a statement to the effect that the person so named has defaulted in making the payment as required by this section. Where the defaulter is a body corporate, the Certificate shall contain the name of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and of every Director or principal officer of such body corporate.
  - (6) The Magistrate shall on receipt of the Certificate issued under subsection (5), issue summons on the defaulter requiring him to appear before him on a date to be specified and show cause as to why proceedings should not be taken against him for recovery of the amount of the Levy or such part of the Levy which is in default and the surcharge accrued thereon. Where the cause shown appears to the Magistrate to be insufficient so as to explain the reason for the non-payment, the Magistrate shall after recording the same, make Order for the recovery of the amount of the Levy in default and the amount of the surcharge accrued thereon, from the defaulter as if they were fines imposed by the Magistrate. The money so recovered shall be remitted to the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister to whom the issuing of licenses to television stations is assigned, who shall remit the same to the Consolidated Fund.
8. (1) The Minister may make regulations in respect of all matters which are required by this Act to be prescribed or in respect of which regulations are required or authorized to be made under this Act.
- (2) Every regulation made under subsection (1) shall be published in the Gazette and shall come into operation on the date of publication, or on such later date as may be specified therein.
- (3) Every regulation made under subsection (1) shall, as soon as convenient after its publication in the Gazette, be placed before Parliament for approval. Every regulation, which is not so approved, shall be deemed to be rescinded as from the date of disapproval, but without prejudice to anything previously done thereunder.
- (4) Notification of the date on which any regulation is deemed to be so rescinded shall be published in the Gazette.
9. For the purposes of this Part –
- “film” means any audio visual presentation of a moving image produced on any form or format whatsoever, and which is intended primarily to be exhibited by proprietors on a screen in a cinema ;
- “tele drama” means a drama telecast over the television.

BANKING (AMENDMENT) ACT, NO. 15 OF 2006

[Certified on 31st March, 2006]

AN ACT TO AMEND THE BANKING ACT, NO. 30 OF 1988

1. This Act may be cited as the Banking (Amendment) Act, No. 15 of 2006.
2. Section 19 of the Banking Act, No. 30 of 1988 (hereinafter referred to as “the principal enactment”) is hereby amended by the repeal of subsection (3)(a) of that section and the substitution therefor of the following :-

“(3) (a) The Monetary Board may, vary from time to time the amounts specified as the minimum amounts required to be maintained by a licensed commercial bank as equity capital under subsection (1) of this section, having regard to –

  - (i) the deposit liabilities or to the total liabilities including contingent liabilities or to the total assets or to any specified category of assets, of a licensed commercial bank; or
  - (ii) the viability and stability of the banking system and the interest of the national economy.”.
3. Section 46 of the principal enactment is hereby amended in subsection (1) thereof by the substitution for clause (c) of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (d) thereof, the following new clause:-

“(c) companies in each of which an individual or company as the case may be, has either directly, indirectly or beneficially a substantial interest or significant management interest.”.
4. Section 76G of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following section substituted therefor :-

“Equity capital to be maintained by a licensed specialized bank.	76G. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3), every licensed specialized bank shall at all times maintain an equity capital in an amount not less than fifty million rupees or such other amount as the Monetary Board may, with the concurrence of the Minister, from time to time determine, having regard to the viability and stability of the banking system and the interest of the national economy. (2) For the purpose of this section “equity capital” shall have the same meaning as is assigned to it in subsection (2) of section 19. (3) (a) The Monetary Board may, vary from time to time the amounts specified as the minimum amounts required to be maintained by a licensed specialized bank as equity capital under subsection (1) of this section, having regard to - <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(i) the deposit liabilities or to the total liabilities including contingent liabilities or to the total assets or to any specified category of assets, of a licensed specialized bank; or</li> <li>(ii) the viability and stability of the banking system and the interest of the national economy.</li> </ol>
---	--

- (b) For the purpose of computing the minimum required equity capital, when such amount is prescribed with reference to liabilities or assets both capital and liabilities or assets shall be of such kind and computed in such manner as the Monetary Board may from time to time determine having regard to the interest of national economy.
    - (c) The Monetary Board shall, in writing, communicate to all licensed specialized banks any variation made by it in respect of the equity capital required to be maintained by a licensed specialized bank.
    - (d) Where any licensed specialized bank is required by such variation to augment its equity capital, it shall upon application to the Monetary Board, be afforded a period of twelve months, or such longer period as may be granted by the Monetary Board, in which to comply with that requirement.
  - (4) In the case of licensed specialized bank incorporated or established in Sri Lanka by or under any written law, the limit of foreign participation in the capital of such bank, shall at no time exceed the limit, established from time to time, by the Monetary Board.
  - (5) A licensed specialized bank shall not reduce its equity capital without the prior written approval of the Monetary Board.
  - (6) A licensed specialized bank shall not create any charge upon any unpaid capital of such bank and any such charge created in contravention of these provisions shall be null and void.
  - (7)
    - (a) Every licensed specialized bank shall at all times maintain a capital adequacy ratio as may be determined by the Monetary Board, which shall in determining such ratio to be maintained, as far as practicable adopt the guidelines for capital adequacy set out by Bank for International Settlements in Basle.
    - (b) Any variation in the capital adequacy ratio referred to in paragraph (a) shall be communicated to every licensed specialized bank by the Monetary Board in writing, provided that every licensed specialized bank which is required by such variation to augment its capital, shall be afforded a period of twelve months or such longer period as may be granted by the Monetary Board, in which to comply with such requirement.
  - (8) Where the equity capital or capital funds of a licensed specialized bank have become deficient in terms of the provisions of the preceding subsections, the Monetary Board may, grant a reasonable period of time for the rectification of such deficiency.”.
5. Nothing contained in section 76G of the principal enactment shall be construed as being applicable to a Regional Development Bank established under the Regional Development Banks Act, No. 6 of 1997:
- Provided however the Monetary Board may from time to time determine the applicable limits of the capital requirements in relation to such Regional Development Banks.
6. Section 76J of the principal enactment as amended by Act, No. 2 of 2005 is hereby further amended in subsection (1) thereof, as follows :—
- (1) by the repeal of sub-paragraph (ii) (b) (hh) of paragraph (q) ; and
  - (2) by the insertion immediately after clause (b) of sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (q) thereof, of the following :—

“(c) companies in each of which an individual or a company as the case may be, has either directly, indirectly or beneficially a substantial interest or significant management interest.”;
7. Any determination, decision or direction made or issued at any time prior to the coming into operation of this Act, under section 19 or section 76G of the principal enactment shall be deemed for all purposes to have been validly made or issued in terms of sections 19 or 76G respectively of the principal enactment as amended by this Act, and any action taken under any such determination, decision or direction shall accordingly be deemed to be valid.
8. In the event of any inconsistency between the Sinhala and Tamil texts of this Act, the Sinhala text shall prevail.

PART I

ESTABLISHMENT OF NATIONAL INSURANCE TRUST FUND

3. There shall be established a Fund to be called the National Insurance Trust Fund (hereinafter referred to as “the Fund”) from which benefits shall be paid to persons to whom the provisions of this Act shall apply. There shall be paid into the Fund such moneys as are specified in section 18.
4. (1) There shall be established a body called the National Insurance Trust Fund Board (hereinafter referred to as “the Board”) consisting of such persons as are specified in section 6.
- (2) The Board shall, by the name assigned to it by subsection (1), be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue and be sued in its corporate name, and may perform such acts as bodies corporate may by law perform.

5. (1) The Seal of the Board shall be in the custody of such person as the Board may decide from time to time.
- (2) The Seal of the Board may be altered in such manner as may be determined by the Board.
- (3) The Seal of the Board shall not be affixed to any instrument or document except in the presence of the Chairman of the Board, and one other member of the Board, both of whom shall sign the instrument or document in token of their presence :

Provided that where the Chairman is unable to be present at the time when the Seal of the Board is affixed to any instrument or document, any other member authorized in writing by the Chairman in that behalf, shall be competent to sign such instrument or document in accordance with the preceding provisions of this subsection.
- (4) The Board shall maintain a register of every instrument or document to which the Seal of the Board is affixed.
6. (1) The Board shall consist of the following members who shall be appointed by the Minister—
  - (a) an officer of the Ministry of the Minister to whom the subject of Finance is assigned;
  - (b) the Chief Accountant of the Ministry of the Minister to whom the subject of Finance is assigned;
  - (c) an officer of the Ministry of the Minister to whom the subject of Health is assigned;
  - (d) an officer from the Ministry of the Minister to whom the subject of Public Administration is assigned; and
  - (e) three persons to be nominated by the Minister from among persons possessing qualifications or expertise in the fields of finance, banking, insurance, management or law.
- (2) The Chairman of the Board shall be appointed by the Minister.
7. (1) Every nominated member shall hold office for a period of five years from the date of appointment, unless he earlier vacates office by death resignation or removal.
- (2) A nominated member may resign from his office by written communication addressed to the Minister in that regard.
- (3) The Minister may by written communication addressed to any nominated member, remove such member from office for reasons assigned.
- (4) A nominated member to whom a communication is addressed under subsection (3), shall cease to hold office with effect from such date as may be specified in such communication.
- (5) A nominated member who has been removed from office shall not be eligible for re-appointment as a member of the Board or to serve the Board in any other capacity.
- (6) Upon any nominated member ceasing to hold office, the Minister may appoint any other person to fill such vacancy and such person shall hold office for the un-expired period of the term of office of the member whom he succeeds.
- (7) Where any member is temporarily unable to perform the duties of his office on account of ill health, absence from Sri Lanka or any other cause, the Minister may appoint any person to act in place of such member.
8. A person shall be disqualified from being appointed, or from continuing, as a member if he—
  - (a) is a Member of Parliament, a member of a Provincial Council or a member of a local Authority; or

INVESTIGATION

7. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, all offences under this Act shall be investigated, tried or otherwise dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979.
8. (1) The Minister may, by Order published in the Gazette appoint a panel of experts from among persons having the prescribed qualifications in electronic engineering or software engineering or in any area of expertise identified by the Minister (hereinafter referred to as “an expert”) to assist the police in all investigation into an offence under this Act.
- (2) The qualifications (having regard to the specific areas of expertise in electronic engineering or software engineering) required by persons serving as experts and the manner and mode of appointment and the conditions of appointment of such experts shall be as prescribed by regulations.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that for the purposes of this Act, “expert” shall be deemed to include any person, institution or any body of persons.
- (4) For the purpose of an investigation under this Act, an expert called upon to assist the police in an investigation, shall, have the power to—
  - (a) enter upon any premises along with a police officer not below the rank of a sub-inspector;
  - (b) access any information system, computer or computer system or any programme, data or information held in such computer and to cause any computer or any other device utilized for the commission of the fraud to perform any function as may be necessary for such purpose;
  - (c) require any person to produce any document, information, device or other thing as is necessary for the purpose of such investigation;
  - (d) require any person to disclose any traffic data ;
  - (e) orally examine any person; and
  - (f) do such other things as may be reasonably required, for the purposes of this Act.
- (5) An expert shall be paid such remuneration as may be determined by the Minister in consultation with the Minister in charge of the the subject of Finance.
- (6) An expert appointed under this section may be called upon to assist any Police Officer in the investigation of an offence under this Act, and it shall be the duty of such expert to render all such assistance as may be required for the purposes of such investigation. Where any proceedings have been commenced consequent to the findings of an investigation, it shall be the duty of the expert to make available for the purposes of such proceedings, any information, data, material or other matter that may be obtained by him in the course of such investigation and where called upon to do so to give evidence in such proceedings.
9. (1) Every police officer and every expert who conducts any search or inspection or does any other thing in the course of an investigation, shall make every endeavour to ensure that the ordinary course of legitimate business for which an acquirer’s point of sales network or automated teller machine network is used, is not hampered by such search, inspection or investigation and shall not seize such acquirer’s point of sales network or automated teller machine network or part thereof, if such seizure will prejudice the conduct of the ordinary course of business for which such network is used, unless—

- (a) it is not possible to conduct the inspection on the premises where such network, or part thereof is located ; or
  - (b) seizure of such network or part thereof is essential to prevent the commission of the offence or the continuance of the offence or to obtain custody of any information which would otherwise be lost, destroyed, modified or rendered inaccessible.
- (2) A police officer or an expert conducting an investigation under the Act, shall conduct and conclude such investigation as expeditiously as the circumstances of the case permit.
- 10. (1) Any police officer may, in the course of an investigation under this Act, exercise powers of arrest, search, or seizure in the manner provided for by law :

Provided that a police officer making an arrest without a warrant of a person suspected of committing an offence under this Act, shall without unnecessary delay and within twenty-four hours of such arrest, exclusive of the time taken for the journey from the place of arrest to the presence of the Magistrate, produce such person before the Magistrate of the Court nearest to the place where the suspect is arrested.
- (2) No police officer shall access any payment device, computer or acquirer's point of sales network or automated teller machine network for the purpose of an investigation under this Act unless the Inspector-General of Police has certified in writing that such police officer possesses adequate knowledge and skill in the field of information, communication, technology or electronic or software engineering and is possessed of the required expertise to perform such a function.
- 11. (1) Any person who is required by an expert or a police officer to make any disclosure or to assist in an investigation under this Act, shall comply with such requirement.
- (2) A person who obstructs the lawful exercise of the powers conferred on an expert or a police officer or fails to comply with any reasonable request made by such expert or police officer during an investigation shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be liable to fine not exceeding two hundred thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a period not less than one year and not exceeding two years or to both such fine and imprisonment.
- 12. (1) Every person engaged in an investigation under this Act shall maintain strict confidentiality with regard to all information as may come to his knowledge in the course of such investigation and he shall not, other than in the discharge of his duties under this Act, disclose to any person or utilize for any purpose whatsoever any information so obtained.
- (2) Every person from whom any information has been requested or obtained and any person to whom a written notice has been issued for the preservation of any information, shall maintain strict confidentiality in relation to such information and the fact that such information has been requested, obtained or required to be preserved, and shall not make any disclosure in regard to such matters other than when required to do so in compliance with the provisions of any written law.
- (3) A person referred to in this section shall not be held liable under the civil or criminal law for the disclosure of any data or other information for the purposes of an investigation under this Act.
- (4) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding three hundred thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding two years or to both such fine and imprisonment.
- 13. Where in the course of any trial for an offence under this Act, it appears by the evidence led, that the offence in fact committed by the accused is different to the offence with which he has been charged, or that it is a lesser offence than the one with which he has been charged, then the court may in its discretion alter the Indictment and after such alteration has been made, proceed with the trial as if the altered Indictment had been the original Indictment.
- 14. When an offence under this Act is committed by a body of persons then—
  - (a) if that body of persons is a body corporate, every director and officer of that body of persons ; or
  - (b) if that body of persons is a firm, every partner of that firm, shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence :

Provided that a director or an officer of such body corporate or a partner of such firm shall not be deemed to be guilty of such offence, if such director, officer or partner proves that such offence was committed without his or her knowledge or that he or she exercised all such diligence as is necessary to prevent the commission of such offence.

15. Where a fine is imposed by the Court for an offence under section 3 of this Act, such Court may direct that—

- (a) the whole or any part of the fine recovered, be paid to the Issuer of the payment device or to any other person who has suffered loss thereby, as compensation for such loss ; and
- (b) unless the court otherwise directs, all moneys, items or property, seized by the police during the course of investigations shall be returned to the issuer of the payment device as the lawful owner or to the person who establishes his lawful right to such moneys, items or property.

16. (1) A certified copy of an entry relating to a payment device located in Sri Lanka or outside Sri Lanka, kept by an Issuer or acquirer in the ordinary course of business of such Issuer or acquirer, whether kept in written form or stored by electronic, magnetic, optical or any other means in an information system or computer or payment device shall be admissible in evidence in relation to a prosecution in respect of an offence under section 3 of this Act, and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

(2) Every document, certificate, record, register or extract thereof, if duly signed and issued by an expert either in Sri Lanka or abroad, and duly authenticated by a senior executive of an Issuer or acquirer to whose transactions, or to whose interests such document, certificate record or register or extract thereof relates, shall be prima facie proof of the facts stated therein.

(3) In subsection (1) “a certified copy” means a copy of the entry with a certificate written at the foot of that copy by the chief executive officer of the Issuer or acquirer or any of its authorized representatives certifying it as a true copy, and where such an entry is stored in an information system or computer, a print out of such entry certified as a true copy by an officer holding a responsible position in relation to the operation of the relevant information system or computer.

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Evidence Ordinance or any other law the provisions of this section shall have effect and apply to the prosecution of offences under section 3.

17. Any person who has the possession, control or custody of—

- (a) a counterfeit or unauthorised payment device ;
- (b) any card making or altering equipment without lawful authority ;
- (c) a payment device without authority from its holder or Issuer ;
- (d) any equipment used for acceptance or processing of a payment device without lawful authority, shall be presumed until the contrary is proved to have such payment device or equipment in his possession, custody or control, for the purpose of committing an offence under this Act.

18. A holder of a credit card or other payment device—

- (a) who has failed to pay the total sum due to the Issuer of such credit card or payment device within the period allowed therefor by the Issuer ; and
- (b) who changes his residence or place of employment as stated in the application for such payment device without informing the issuer of such change, shall be presumed to have done so with intent to wilfully defraud the Issuer of such sum.

19. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Judicature Act, No. 2 of 1978 every offence under this Act shall be triable by the High Court established under Article 154P of the Constitution for the Western Province holden in Colombo.

20. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, every offence under this Act, shall be deemed to be a cognizable offence within the meaning and for the purposes of that Code.

21. Any expenses incurred by an expert or police officer in any suit or prosecution brought against such expert or police officer in a court in respect of any act which is done, or purported to be done by him or her under this Act, shall, if the Court holds that the act was done in good faith, be paid out of the funds of the Issuer or acquirer as the case may be, who alleges the commission of the offence, unless such expense is recovered by him in such suit or prosecution.

22. The Schedule to the Extradition Law, No. 8 of 1977 is hereby amended by the insertion immediately before Part B thereof, of the following :—
- “(48) An offence within the meaning of the Payment Devices Frauds Act, No. 30 of 2006”.
23. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Extradition Law, No. 8 of 1977 an offence in terms of this Act shall for the purpose only of extradition under that law, be deemed not to be a fiscal offence, or an offence of a political character, or an offence connected with a political offence or an offence inspired by political motives.
24. Where a request is made to the Government of Sri Lanka by or on behalf of the Government of another country for the extradition of any person accused or convicted of an offence under this Act, the Minister shall, on behalf of the Government of Sri Lanka forthwith notify the Government of the requesting State of the measures that the Government of Sri Lanka has taken, or proposes to take, for the prosecution or extradition of that person for that offence.
25. (1) The provisions of the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act, No. 25 of 2002 shall, wherever it is necessary for the investigation and prosecution of an offence under section 3 of this Act, be applicable in respect of the providing of assistance as between the Government of Sri Lanka and other States who are either Commonwealth countries specified by the Minister by Order under section 2 of the aforesaid Act or Non-Commonwealth countries with which the Government of Sri Lanka has entered into an agreement in terms of the aforesaid Act.
- (2) In the case of a country which is neither a Commonwealth country specified by the Minister by Order under section 2 of the aforesaid Act, nor a Non-Commonwealth country with which the Government of Sri Lanka has entered into an agreement in terms of the aforesaid Act, then it shall be the duty of the Government to afford all such assistance to, and may through the Minister request all such assistance as may be necessary for the investigation and prosecution of an offence under section 3 to the extent required for the discharge of its obligations (including assistance relating to the taking of evidence and statements, the serving of process and the conduct of searches).
- (3) The grant of assistance to a convention country may be made subject to such terms and conditions as the Minister thinks fit.
26. (1) Where a person who is not a citizen of Sri Lanka is arrested for an offence under this Act, such person shall be entitled —
- (a) to communicate without delay with the nearest appropriate representative of the State of which he is a national or which is otherwise entitled to protect his rights or if he is a stateless person, with the nearest appropriate representative of the State in the territory where he was habitually resident; and
- (b) to be visited by a representative of that State.
- (2) A request under section 24 shall be deemed not to be invalidated for the purposes of any legal proceedings by reason of any failure to comply with the provisions of section 25 provided that there is sufficient compliance with those provisions to enable it to properly execute the request.
27. (1) Where a person is arrested for an offence under this Act, the Minister to whom the administration of this Act is assigned shall inform the Minister in charge of the subject of Foreign Affairs to inform the relevant authorities in any other State which has made a request under sections 24 and 25 in respect of such person, of the measures which the Government of Sri Lanka has taken or proposes to take for the prosecution or extradition of that person.
- (2) Where a request is made to the Government of Sri Lanka, by or on behalf of the Government of any State, for the extradition of any person accused or convicted of an offence corresponding to an offence under this Act, the Minister in charge of the subject of Foreign Affairs shall, on behalf of the Government of Sri Lanka, forthwith inform the Government of the requesting State, of the measures which the Government of Sri Lanka has taken, or proposes to take, for the prosecution or extradition of that person.
- (3) Where it is decided that no order should be made under the Extradition Law, No. 8 of 1977, for the extradition of any person accused or convicted of an offence corresponding to an offence under this Act, pursuant to a request for his extradition made under that Law, by the Government of any State, the case shall be submitted to the law enforcement authorities, so that prosecution for the offence under the law of Sri Lanka, or any other appropriate action may be considered.

28. Where there is an extradition arrangement in force between the Government of Sri Lanka and the Government of any other State, such arrangement shall be deemed, for the purposes of the Extradition Law, No. 8 of 1977, to include provision for extradition in respect of an offence under this Act and of attempting or conspiring to commit or aiding and abetting the commission of such offence.
29. The Government shall afford such assistance (including the supply of any relevant evidence at its disposal) to the relevant authorities of any foreign State as may be necessary in connection with criminal proceedings instituted in that State against any person, in respect of an offence under the law of that State corresponding to an offence under this Act.
30. (1) The Minister may make regulations for the purpose of carrying out or giving effect to the principles and provisions of this Act, and in respect of matters that are by this Act required or authorised to be prescribed.
- (2) Every regulation made by the Minister shall be published in the Gazette and shall come into operation on the date of such publication, or on such later date as may be specified in such regulation.
- (3) Every regulation made by the Minister shall, as soon as convenient after its publication in the Gazette, be brought before Parliament for approval. Any regulation which is not so approved, shall be deemed to be rescinded as from the date of such disapproval, but without prejudice to anything previously done thereunder.
- (4) Notification of the date on which a regulation is deemed to be rescinded shall be published in the Gazette.
